About us

At the YMCA of Greater Moncton, we believe in creating spaces where everyone feels welcome, supported, and empowered to shine in their own way. As a charitable organization, we've been building healthy, vibrant, and connected communities since 1870—offering programs that inspire people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds to grow stronger in body, mind, and spirit.

We've come a long way in 150+ years! In 2020, we proudly celebrated our milestone anniversary and expanded our reach with a new satellite location in Moncton's North End—bringing even more opportunities to connect, belong, and thrive.

Why Join the YMCA?

When you work at the Y, you're not just starting a job—you're stepping into something bigger. You become part of a purpose-driven team, helping children, youth, adults, and families unlock their full potential. Every role at the YMCA makes an impact. Whether you're leading programs, supporting behind the scenes, or welcoming members at the front desk, your work helps light the way for others.

Be the spark that inspires change.
Be the spark that lifts up your community.
Be the spark that helps others shine.
