Back on Track Secondary Youth Worker/ Youth Connections Staff

Full time contract, 40 hours a week, afternoons and evenings

Position Overview

Back on Track by the Y supports youth in succeeding in a school environment. Youth may attend the Back on Track program in times of crisis. It is a safe space where they can stay up to date on schoolwork while also building positive relationships and developing skills and tools that will help them succeed in a classroom setting and life. This position strives to create a safe space for youth struggling with school or emotional distress. Youth are supported through individual and group interventions, workshops, and help with school work. The Secondary Youth Worker facilitates mediation amongst youth and school personnel, collects information and maintains database, and drafts reports and assessments. This position is responsible for building relationships and encouraging positive behaviours with youth in the programs and throughout the YMCA.

Duties
